

Dear partner, Excellency, Madam, and Sir,

I am honored to present you with this unique opportunity, to not just expose your company, services, and brand to potential buyers, investors and officials, but also proudly represent Cambodia on the international market.

Linx International is organizing a series of business networking events allowing Cambodian products and services to get to new markets. As well as presenting the potential of the Cambodian market to international partners and brand, allowing the building of a thriving international commercial exchange.

Our first event will take place on June 17th in Ljubljana, Slovenia and will gather government officials, businessmen and women, and buyers from different countries and sectors, gathered to explore business opportunities, and get connected to the right people in order to achieve growth.

The Guru Investment event is a unique opportunity, offering a personalized service to its partners and attendees. Our events gather a small number of high profile individuals that understand the advantage of benefiting from a tailor made networking services in selected markets.

Being a Cambodian based company with extensive knowledge of the international market, we took it upon ourselves to share that experience with a selected number of partners in order to be a vector for their success.

Looking forward to hosting you in Slovenia,

Your faithfully

Lea Bogatin
GIS Conference executive Director md@linx-international.com
+855 86 945 154